MEMORANDUM

FOR: ALL CONCERNED

SUBJECT: REITERATION OF THE QUEZON CITY HEALTHY PUBLIC FOOD PROCUREMENT POLICY

DATE: July 7, 2025

In support of the Quezon City Government's commitment to promoting public health, proper nutrition, and sustainable food consumption, Quezon City University (QCU) hereby reiterates the Quezon City Healthy Public Food Procurement Policy, which promotes the procurement, preparation, and serving of nutritious, safe, and healthy food in government institutions.

As a local university, QCU recognizes its responsibility to uphold this policy and promote healthier food choices among students, faculty, employees, and other stakeholders.

Accordingly, all concerned offices, colleges, departments, and student organizations are hereby directed to observe the following guidelines in university-sponsored activities, meetings, seminars, conferences, and other institutional events involving food procurement and serving:

1. Healthy and Nutritious Food: Prioritize balanced meals, fresh fruits, vegetables, whole grains, and minimally processed food.
2. Healthier Food and Beverage Choices: Limit food high in sodium, added sugars, saturated fats, and trans fats, and promote safe drinking water and healthier beverage alternatives.
3. Responsible and Sustainable Procurement: Encourage locally sourced, nutritious, and sustainably produced food, consistent with applicable government procurement regulations.
4. Food Safety and Compliance: Ensure that food suppliers, caterers, and food service providers observe applicable nutrition, sanitation, and food safety standards.
5. Institutional Implementation: Integrate healthy food procurement principles into university activities, procurement planning, catering arrangements, and related food services, consistent with the requirements of the City Government policy.

This reiteration reinforces QCU's commitment to promoting a healthy and sustainable university environment. All concerned are enjoined to ensure the consistent observance and implementation of this policy.

For strict compliance.
